

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST MINISTRY FOR EARTH

Identify and Recognize Your Local Eco-Hero

Is there UUnsung environmental hero in your congregation? Often grassroots activists in our midst go unrecognized, yet their efforts to protect the world's natural resources and work for environmental justice are increasingly critical to the continued well being of Earth and all beings.

For Earth Day, UU Ministry for Earth (UUMFE) invites you to identify and celebrate someone in your congregation who has made a significant effort that you would identify as Earth ministry by naming him or her a local Eco-Hero.

Eco-Hero Recognition

- Identify an individual within your congregation who has done outstanding, dedicated work to build a just and sustainable Earth.
- Contact your Board or Worship Committee to plan for recognition of this person as your congregation's Eco-Hero as part of your Earth Day service or other event.
- Complete the specially designed Eco-Hero certificate to present on Earth Sunday.
- Include your honoree's name and one or two sentences about them when you register your Earth Day event(s) on the UUMFE website – we will include the information on our current Celebrate Earth Day main page.
- If you don't wish to register, just e-mail the information to the UUMFE office: office@uuministryforearth.org
- We love photos! Please e-mail any photos of your Eco-Hero presentation or any other Earth Day event – we may post them on the website or in a future newsletter
